A Pilot Study to Explore Novice Debriefers' Post-Simulation Debriefing Experiences

Grace Ng ¹ and Daniel M. Lugassy²

This month NYSIM is excited to share a new original research article published in Simulation and Gaming by two of our directors, Grace Ng and Daniel Lugassy!

<https://doi.org/10.1177/1046878120970998>

Effective debriefing of simulation-based experiences is critical for learning. In this qualitative study, the researchers examined how health professions instructors approach debriefing when they are new to debriefing simulation-based experiences. The findings of this study shed light on debriefers' expertise development at the novice stage. After you read our study, please do drop us a line to let us know what you think!

NYSIM Highlights : Welcoming 2021

As we enter into this New Year, NYSIM extends our deep appreciation to everyone in our community for helping us meet the unprecedented challenges of 2020. Every step of the way, our staff, leadership, faculty, and learners worked together to ensure safe and effective learning was prioritized and facilitated. We are so proud of the teamwork, problem solving, innovation, and dedication shown in 2020. Thank you!

As we step forward into 2021, we maintain our commitment to safety. Please see page 2 for our updated COVID-19 operational procedures.

News at NYSIM

The New York Simulation Center (NYSIM) is committed to supporting safe operations for all learners, faculty & staff.

Please note the following operational changes in order to support safe operating procedures:

- 1. All educational programs already scheduled from effective date to January 15, 2021 will be reviewed, it may necessitate a re-intake meeting to re-design the program to keep faculty, learners and staff safe to the guidelines below*
- 2. All individuals entering Bellevue Hospital (therefore NYSIM) will require a temperature check in the Bellevue Lobby. Individuals may also be required to complete a symptom check*
- 3. All individuals will be required to use hand sanitizer as they enter NYSIM, and continue to follow good hand hygiene while in NYSIM*
- 4. All individuals will be asked to practice social distancing when possible and remain at least six feet apart even when wearing masks*
- 5. Surgical masks must be worn at all times while in NYSIM, unless alone in a closed room*
- 6. All individuals will be asked to report directly into the simulation rooms and not congregate at the front desk. The sitting area is closed.*
- 7. No food or drink is permitted. All individuals will be asked to store any food/drink in a locker, or throw it away.*
- 8. NYSIM will adhere to recommended individual numbers per space which are posted throughout the simulation center.*
- 9. In our larger simulation spaces NYSIM will allow a learner + faculty maximum of 9 individuals*

NYSIM will work with scheduled programs to adhere to the precautions above. If anyone has any questions/concerns they should contact NYSIM@nyulangone.org . Leadership at NYSIM will respond promptly to the email.

*Thank you,
NYSIM Team*

NYU Langone Health
